It lies on the intersection of important routes between the Adriatic coast and Central Europe. It can offer its visitors the Baroque atmosphere of the Upper Town, picturesque open-air markets, diverse shopping facilities, an abundant selection of crafts and a choice vernacular cuisine. DAY 8 – RIBNIK – OPATIJA

WEDNESDAY, 8 JULY 2020

Drive towards Opatija – your home for the next couple of days.

After a cosy motorway ride through the mountain part of Croatia, you will be treated with your first view of the the Mediterranean Sea, more precisely the Adriatic Sea, the Kvarner bay and the peninsula if Istra if we want to be meticulous.

It is an area where the Mediterranean meets Central Europe, where the Venitian lion and the Eagle of the Habsburgs proudly stand at city gates testifying the whirlwind of history. An area characterised by a constant mixture of cultures, where it was not uncommon to speak 5 languages in one family house (Croatian, Italian, Slovenian, German and Hungarian).

We will set the base for our expedition in Opatija, the oldest tourist centre in this part of Europe.

A city built by the Austrian nobility, to spend their cloudy Viennese days at their closest Mediterranean coast from Vienna. It was the Habsburgs answer to Nice. Almost all the hotels and villas were built in this Golden Era, from the second half of the 19th century until the WW1, the collapse of the Habsburg Empire.

Still, when strolling along the main street of Opatija, inhaling the scent of the lush magnolias and camellias in the park, watching the waves hitting the rocks or treating yourself with a coffee and a Sachertorte,

Kremschnitte or Schwarzwaldtorte, you will feel partially taken back in that glorious time hear some gossips about the life of the VIPs of that era.

SERVICES INCLUDED: hotel in Opatija

DAY 9 – OPATIJA – PULA – LUNCH AT HOMESTEAD – ROVINJ – OPATIJA

THURSDAY, 9 JULY 2020

Istria is the largest peninsula in the Adriatic Sea. The peninsula is located at the head of the Adriatic between the Gulf of Trieste and Kvarner Gulf. Istria is one of the most diverse and interesting regions of Croatia.

Today we will visit two beautiful towns – Pula and Rovinj and enjoy some delicious Istrian cuisine at a local homestead famous for their olive oil and Istrian prosciutto made in a traditional old-fashioned home production.

SERVICES INCLUDED: hotel in Opatija, local guide in Pula and Rovinj, lunch at homestead, entrance to amphitheater in Pula
